To Distinguished Alumni of our School

JUDGE WILLIAM W. UTTLEY

MAJOR GENERAL FRANK R. McCOY

Through the portals of Lewistown Joint High School have passed thousands of students, starting out on the road of life. Distinguishing themselves from the masses are numerous former pupils. These successful individuals have set before the youth of today a shining example of worthwhile living. To these eminent persons we dedicate the 1952 Lore.

THEY MADE POSSIBLE

DR. CALVIN V. ERDLY, B.S., M.S., Ph.D.
Superintendent of Public Schools
Lewistown, Pennsylvania

The basis of character building lies in the home, in those first important years with the parents. It is there that a child first learns to discriminate between the true and the false. It is there that the foundation for his future begins.

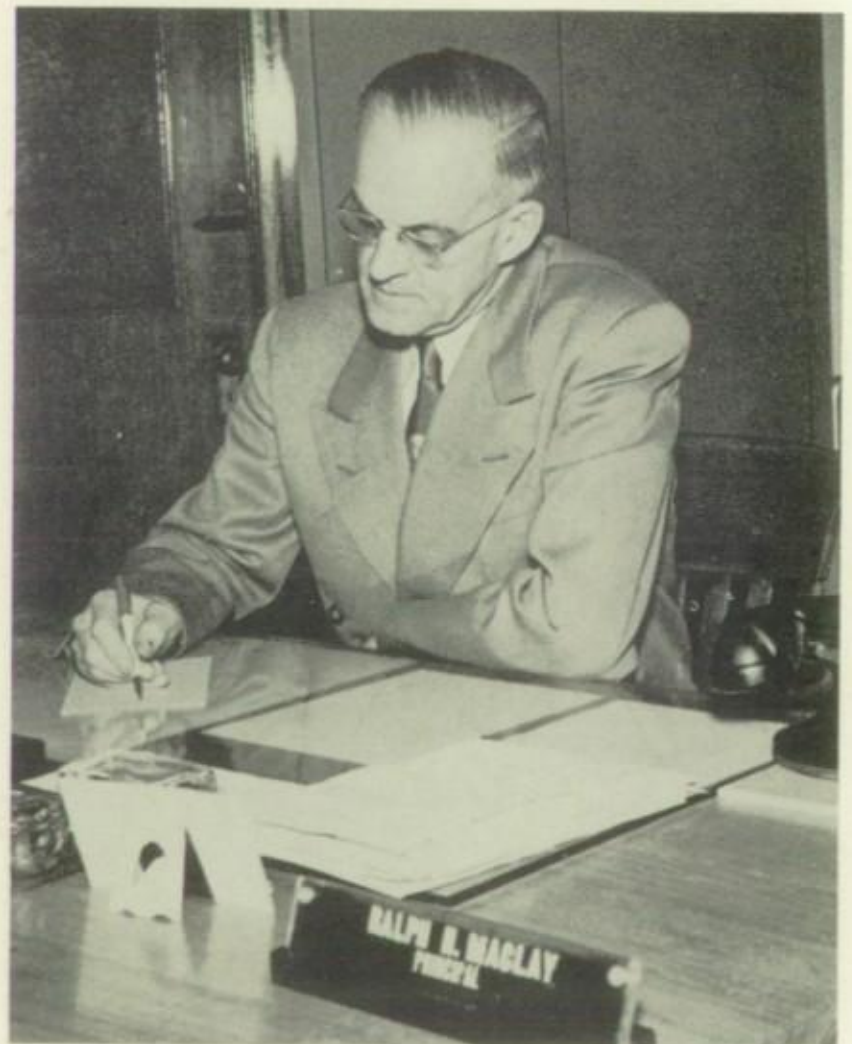

It is possible for nearly everyone to acquire an education, but unless the individual applies himself to his studies with real effort and thirst for knowledge he can handicap himself.

It was said that when Thomas Jefferson discussed law, he was judged to be a lawyer. When in a medical discussion, he was thought to be a doctor. In speaking of science, people believed him to be a scientist. The reason for this was his real interest, his unquenchable enthusiasm for the acquisition of knowledge. This same path lies before each student.

R. H. MACLAY

History points to times when moral values in practice came to a low ebb. In each such period, civilization could not withstand the strain and stress of disregard for high standards and acceptable ethics. The result was always a return to the firm foundation of religion. There are differences among men, even in their beliefs and faiths; however, morality in its pure sense is the same everywhere, because it comes from God. The preparation for real living is without pure form and may be of little worth when it fails to include a keen sense and practice of decency and virtue.

TOWARDS A GOAL

Senior Counselor

Miss Gladys S. McCauley, our friendly counselor, does much toward building good character in the pupils. She recognizes the individual personalities of each student and is sympathetic with his problems. Each year, everyone has some contact with Miss McCauley, for she helps him find the most suitable course, and she explains the required number of credits.

She is constantly on the alert for helpful information regarding vocations, college scholarships, and other material useful to seniors.

Miss McCauley also helps plan the social affairs of the school, such as the Junior Prom, the Dinner Dance, and the Class Picnic.

MISS GLADYS S. McCAULEY
Senior Class Counselor

Secretaries

WITH A VARIETY OF COURSES

QU'EST-CE QUE C'EST? French class is in progress. Listening and understanding the conversation on a French record is one of the rewards of this course. Spanish and Latin are taught also in our school.

THE PRESENT time spent in solving Trigonometry problems will help these pupils in developing their reasoning powers. Solid Geometry is taught in affiliation with this course the second semester.

SOME FUTURE scientists mix and stir the various chemicals to find that perpetually elusive conclusion. Laboratory work with the class work aids the pupils in discovering the mysteries of nature.

ONCE MORE Macbeth comes to life as a group of seniors portray Shakespeare's immortal play. Literature, composition, grammar, and oral work prepare the students of today for the life of tomorrow.

TO CHOOSE FROM

PRACTICE makes perfect. In office practice pupils receive not only a course in filing, but also instruction and practice on the different forms and machines used in business offices.

IN ORDER to understand our modern economic system, a knowledge of bookkeeping is very important. Pupils learn to keep adequate records, which business and professional people need.

TAKE a letter! Stenography is a course that teaches students to take dictation rapidly and transcribe accurately with emphasis on grammar, punctuation, and appearance of mailable transcripts.

WE PLAN FOR OUR FUTURE

PUPILS ARE encouraged to follow their particular interests in art. The picture shows art students working on landscapes in oil, working in two-color block prints, and glazing pottery. Art appreciation and field trips are included in the course.

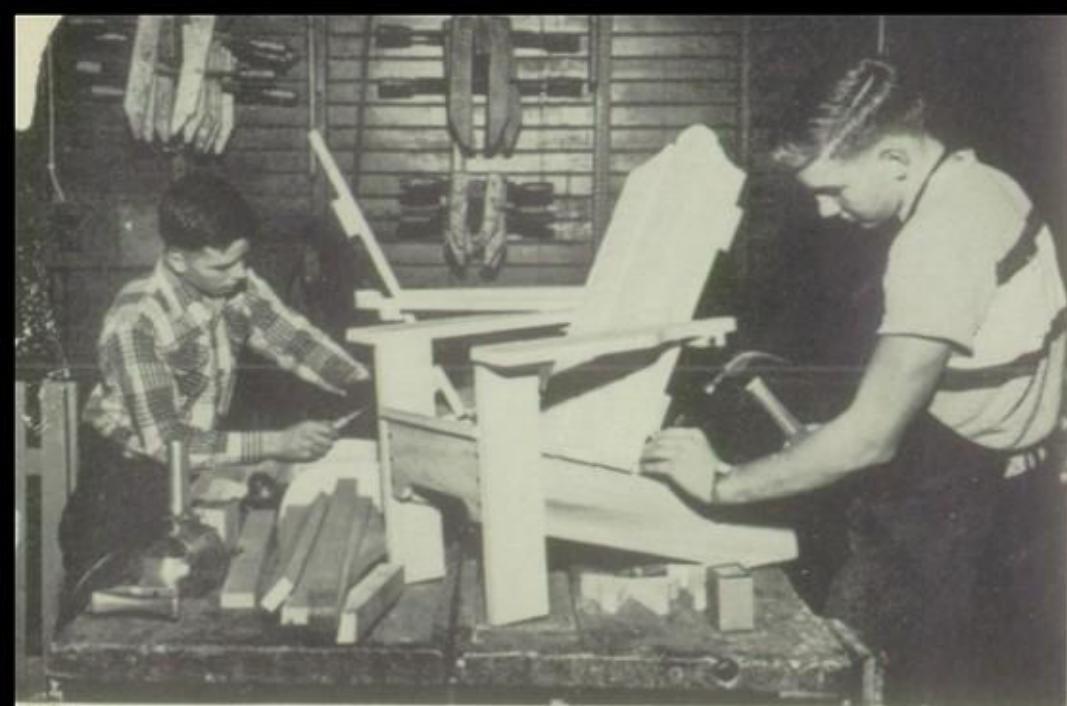

A CLASS of American History watches the screen as past and present events are portrayed. American History teaches us the mistakes of the past to prevent those of the future.

SOME SENIORS are preparing for future homes by learning to cook on the attractive, modern stoves in the homemaking department. Instruction on proper diet is an essential part of the course.

FUTURE homemakers are busily at work. Lovely dresses and suits emerge from this workshop, for the fundamentals of planning and making clothes are taught in sewing class.

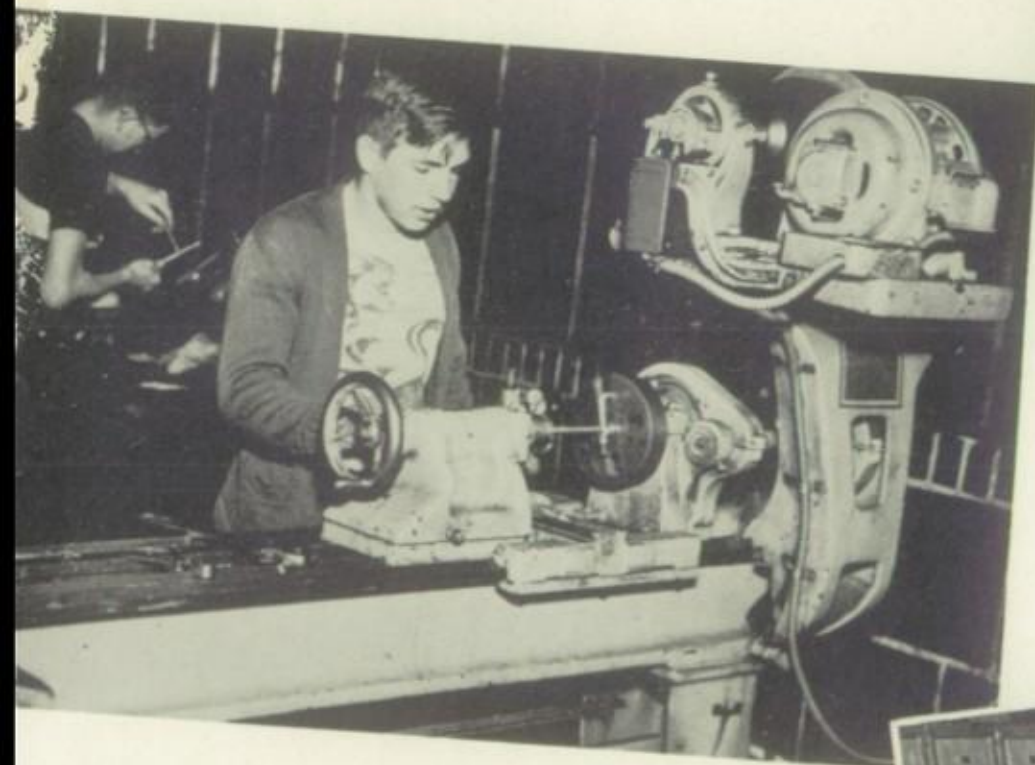

IN WOOD shop two juniors are working on a lawn chair project. This problem gives training in assembly work and practice, as well as in the proper use of tools.

IN ELECTRIC shop one of the more complicated jobs in an electrician's work is rewinding a motor. This type of training comes in the senior year.

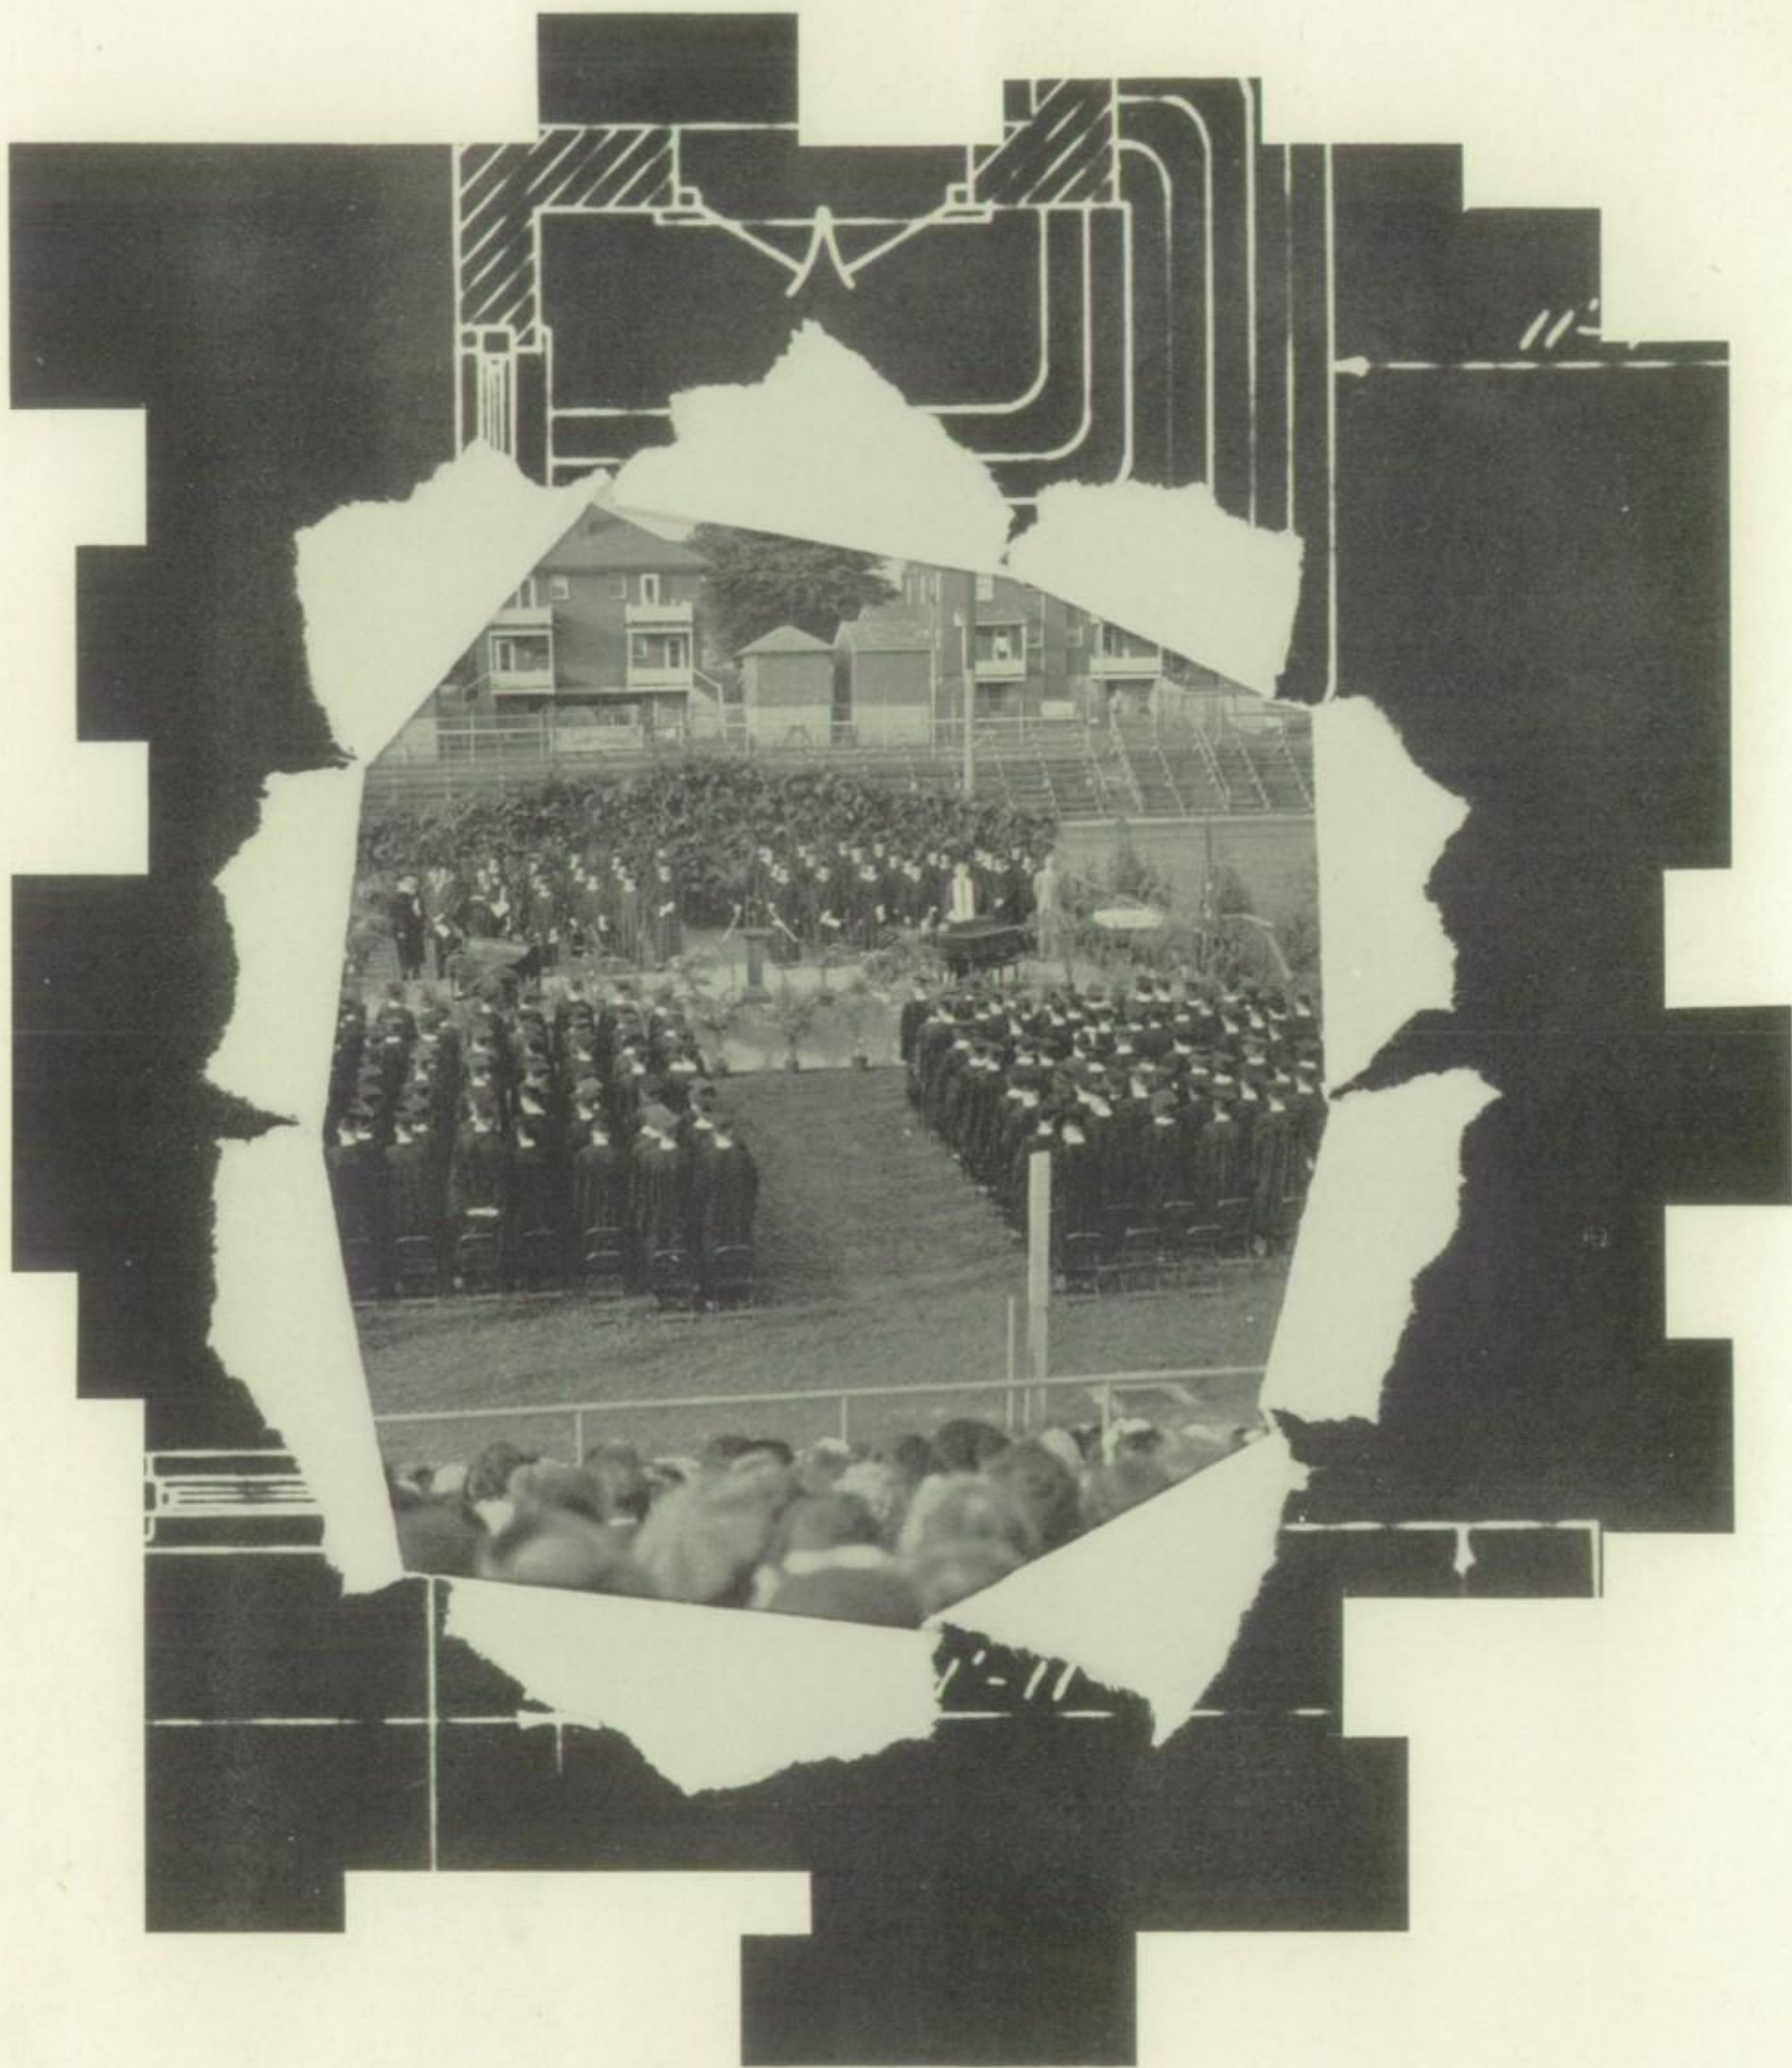

DRAFTING problems vary from small drawings to large layouts. In Drafting shop two juniors are working on a plan for a proposed field work. Planning and technique are important.

MASTERY of the engine lathe is one of the important elements in training to be a machinist. In Machine shop a sophomore is doing a simple turning job on a lathe.

IN AUTO shop a group of sophomores are dismantling a V-type motor to learn what is inside. Afterwards, they will reassemble it and make it run.

Graduates

SENIOR ADVISERS and OFFICERS

WE ARE GRATEFUL to our advisers for their guidance and advice during our three years in the Senior Department. They have helped us in many ways. Standing left to right: Mr. Sicchitano, Mr. Swetek. Seated: Miss McCauley, Mrs. Burd.

CLASS SONG

School's reached an end, only memories remain;

We'll live those times in our hearts once again.

The football team that won each game

And brought the blue and gold its fame;

Our pride for you never shall wane.

Our South Sea Prom, Dinner Dance, and Class Play;

All souvenirs that will last come what may.

Our years with you, too soon will they be through,

When we will sadly to you bid adieu.

JOURNALISTS OF THE FUTURE

LORE EDITORS AND MANAGERS
Seated: Lois Stellmack, editor; Eddie Jones, sports editor.

The Lore staff is elected in the spring of the junior year. Immediately after school resumes the next fall, plans are made for the theme of our yearbook and its contents. Then pictures are taken. The picture committee arranges the layouts and identifies the pictures, while the write-up committee prepares senior biographies. The manuscript must then be typed by the Lore typists. Next, patrons are solicited and subscriptions sold. Finally, the yearbook goes to press.

Several honors have come to the Lore, which has been published for 33 years. The 1951 Lore was a winner in the First Place Group rating in the Pennsylvania School Press Association, and it won First Place Certificate in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

THROUGH STUDENT COUNCIL WE

The Student Council is the representative body of the students. It is composed of the Upper or Official Council, and the Lower or General Council. All members are elected by fellow classmates.

The Student Council officers for this year are: Mike Forsythe, boy president; Donna Reeder, girl president; Donald Crossman, boy representative; Joyce Folk, girl representative.

This year the Student Council has directed the magazine drive, the hall patrol, school dances, the American Junior Red Cross Drive, and various other social events in the school.

We're thankful to Miss McCauley, Mr. Rager, Mr. Riden, and all others for the helping hand they have given the Student Council.

OUR INFORMATIVE PUBLICATIONS

Our school paper, the Maroon and Steel, is published bi-weekly with the L. J. H. S. students as reporters. The front page is devoted to accounts of the school's current activities. The following pages contain the latest gossip and sports news. These reports along with many photographs make up our paper.

We give credit to the Lewistown Sentinel for publishing our paper.

TO CELEBRATE OUR PROGRESS

Orchestra

The instrumental program in L. J. H. S. offers opportunities to interested pupils in both the junior and senior departments.

The band attended all football games and presented interesting drills before the home games and during halftime at the away games. It also took part in several parades during the year. Many band members participated in County Band and also the South Central District Band. The latter was a three-day festival, which was held in our school. There were 175 students representing 27 schools. The annual spring concert and commencement exercises ended the band's activities.

The junior band drilled at several football games and really distinguished itself by taking honors in the Halloween parade.

The junior and senior orchestras play for their respective assembly programs. Two members, Freda Stade and Larry Stetler, of the senior orchestra participated in the District Orchestra.

The newly organized Band Boosters Club promoted several projects this year, and expect to do more in the years to come.

THE BARRYMORES OF TOMORROW

BIT O' SCOTCH

GRAND FINALE

The delightful musical revue, "This Is It," a John B. Rogers production directed by Robert S. Bancroft, presented many song and dance routines interspersed with humorous skits. In the play the main divisions, North, South, West, and East, represented different sections of the United States and served as backgrounds for the action of the revue.

In the North, Santa Claus reigned supreme while Scotch Dolls, Snowmen, and Pygmies frolicked. The Southern belles and their beaux appeared in a graceful number. The cowgirls and the cowboys portrayed the West and a night club scene typified the East. The entire cast appeared in the grand finale of the 1952 gala performance.

THE WIDE OPEN SPACES

One of the most outstanding events of the senior year is the Annual Senior Class Play, in which a large majority of the class can participate. Selection of the play is made at the beginning of the year, and arrangements for the director are also completed. Approximately two weeks before the play, tryouts are held, and the Seniors are chosen for solos, choruses, and skits.

The following weeks are filled with rehearsals, publicity meetings, and ticket selling. Hearty laughs and good fun, which a group activity offers, intermingle with the hard work. Suddenly, almost too soon, it is the night of dress rehearsal. Then comes the time everyone has been waiting for — opening night!

ASSEMBLIES ARE A PART

Assemblies play a major part in the life of a student. Lyceum programs bring to us performers of many fields. At holidays, the various glee clubs entertain the student body. Dr. Calvin V. Erdley conveys messages to us in the office programs, while the students, under the direction of the faculty, take part in the remainder.

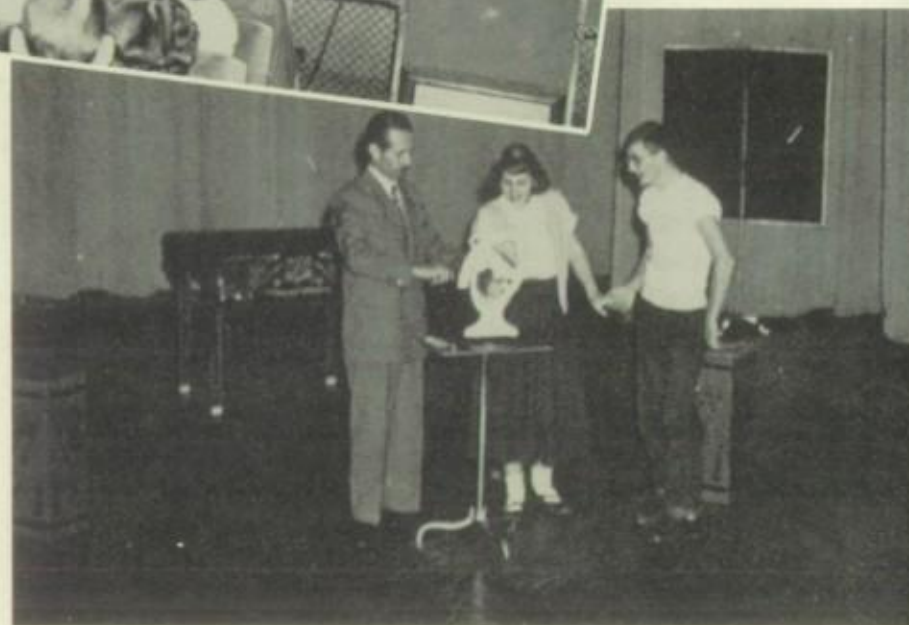

A TRIO sings in the inspiring Armistice Day Program.

A PLAY, "The Ghosts," is presented by the Juniors.

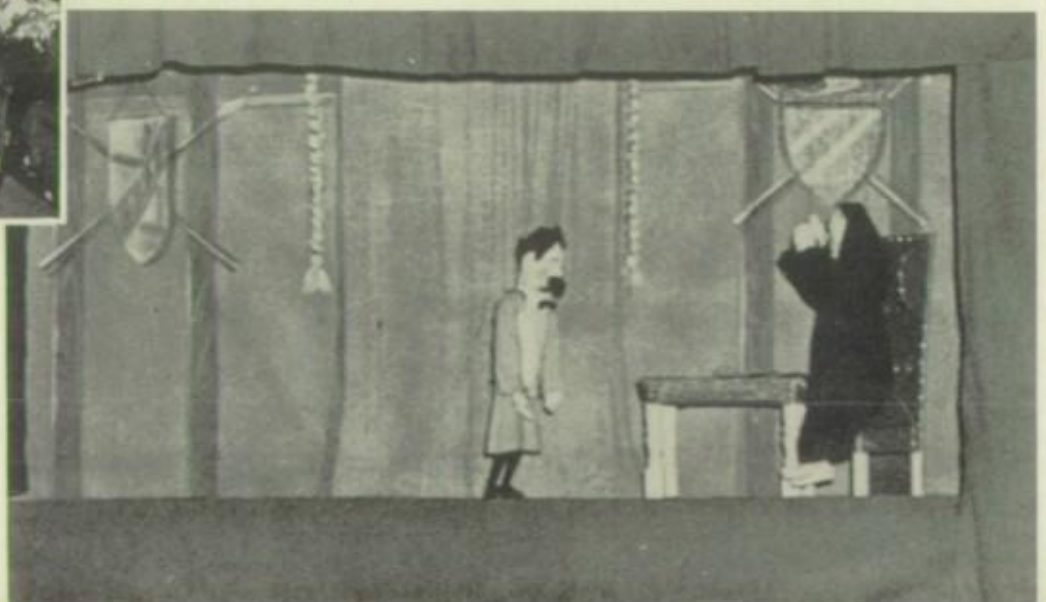

THE LYCEUM program, "The Gloom Chasers," presents an exhibition of magic.

JUNIOR Department is entertained by the "Marionettes."

A BRILLIANT finale with voices of the Glee Clubs ends the Christmas program.

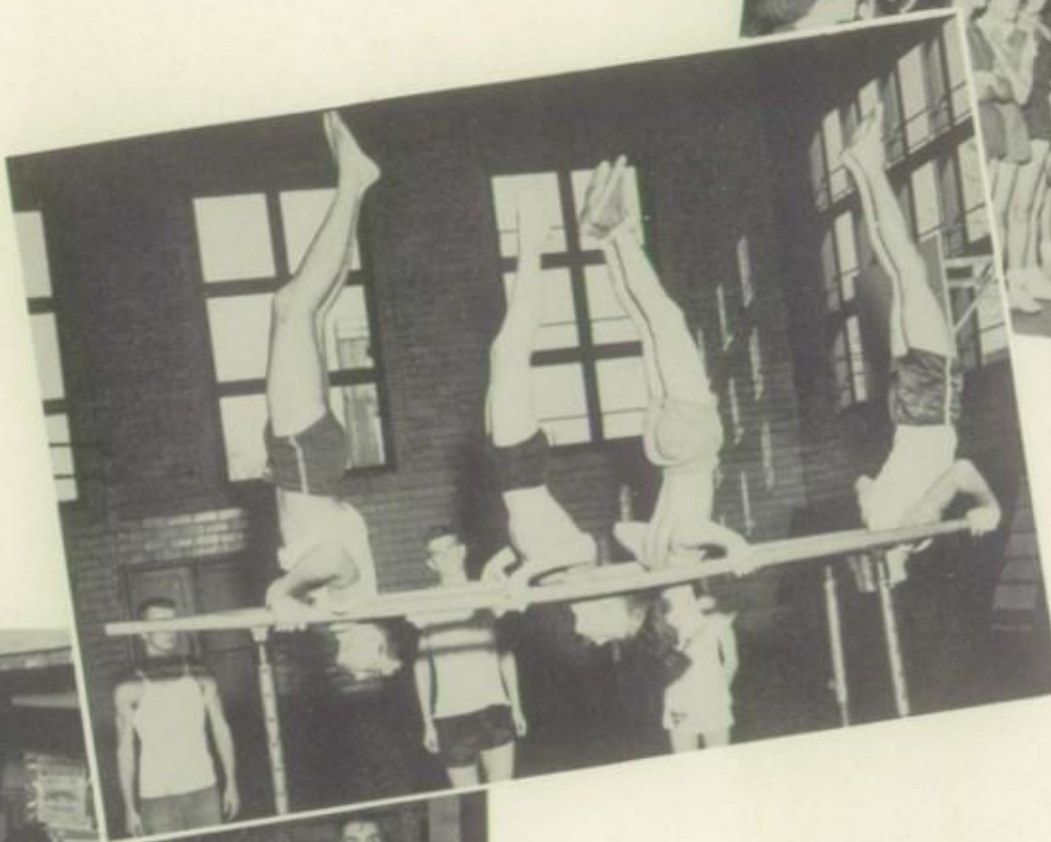

OF THE MANY ACTIVITIES

School life consists not only of studies, but also of many varied activities, which develop our bodies, talents, and other abilities. Sports teach the student the code of good sportsmanship and fair play. Driving instruction shows the proper way to drive an automobile. These activities along with others add fun and color to a school day.

PUPILS develop their sense of balance and timing during gym.

THE BOYS display their prowess on the parallel bars.

AT THE concession stand, hungry football fans buy some food.

LUNCHTIME is a welcome break between classes.

IN FOOTBALL WE

For the first time, the Lewistown Joint High School football team recorded the most brilliant page in its athletic history, an undefeated, untied season.

Between the lines, one may read all that happened to accomplish that bright record, long unglamorous hours of exhausting work by the team, unremitting grind on the part of the coaches and trainer, and the wholehearted support of the student body and faculty.

The football season will never be forgotten and will always remain a cherished memory.

A Panther blocks his man.

LEWISTOWN 32 — SELINGSGROVE 0. The Panthers inaugurated their season with an overwhelming victory over the Selingsgrove Seals. Brumbaugh was the "big gun," by scoring three touchdowns.

LEWISTOWN 12 — BELLEFONTE 0. The Panthers were hard pressed by the valiant play of the Red Raiders until the final quarter when Bannon intercepted a pass and went all the way.

LEWISTOWN 19 — TYRONE 6. With a devastating running attack, the Panthers ran roughshod over a good Tyrone team. Blose and Knudson gave stellar performances for Lewistown.

LEWISTOWN 27 — CAPTAIN JACK 13. In a rough-and-tough affair at Captain Jack, the Panthers won their fourth consecutive victory of the season.

LEWISTOWN 24 — DERRY TOWNSHIP 0. A stubborn Derry Township team finally had to succumb to the powerful running attack of the Panthers. Jones and Blose played well.

LEWISTOWN 25 — LOCK HAVEN 7. The Lewistown Panthers out-fought and out-ran an aggressive Lock Haven team for their sixth consecutive victory. The entire Lewistown line played well.

LEWISTOWN 28 — BLOOMSBURG 6. With Finkbeiner and Roselle out of the line-up, the crippled Panthers still managed to keep their winning streak intact. The game was featured by long runs.

LEWISTOWN 19 — DANVILLE 6. The Panthers dealt the Danville Ironmen their first defeat of the season. The game was hard fought all the way with the Lewistown linemen doing a grand job.

LEWISTOWN 13 — HUNTINGDON 0. The Panthers finished their 1951 season with a glorious win over Huntingdon, thus giving the high school their best season in the history of the school—undefeated and untied. A job well done!

THE NET RESULTS ARE WHAT COUNT

Having lost the starting five of last year's team, the Panthers began the year with an inexperienced varsity squad. The Panthers opened the season by handling the Selingsgrove Seals a 63-43 defeat on the Seals' home court.

One of the most heartbreaking games, witnessed by the Panther fans, was lost to Captain Jack Joint, 47 to 48, on the Brick-towner's home floor. The most thrilling encounter of the season was the defeat delivered to Philipsburg by the Panthers, for the score reached 66 to 60 in a three-minute overtime period on the Panthers' own court.

Lost by graduation will be: Straley, Bolger, Kochenderfer, Dunn, Lepley, and Jones.

Spirited Panthers wait for the ball to descend.

OUR CAGEY CREW

Two points are added as Kochenderfer watches.

The Baby Panthers were moving along with eleven consecutive victories before being upset by a stubborn Philipsburg five, 34 to 31, on the home town court. The Baby Panthers under the direction of Coach Joe Sicchitano had a very successful season with fourteen wins and two losses. The Panthers, losing five of last year's squad, showed fight and determination, as they pushed their way to the first half championship of the Mountain League. The second defeat handed the Panthers was a 38-37 decision to a scrappy Hollidaysburg squad.

Lost to next year's varsity are: Bannon, Beckwith, Long, Heckert, Bossert, Clelan, and McConnell.

Will we get the tap?

WE'LL FOLLOW THE PLANS

Not enjoyment, and not sorrow
Is our destined end or way;
But to act that each tomorrow
Finds us farther than today.

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

From A PSALM OF LIFE
by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Just beginning the road to knowledge are these small children. Through the succeeding years their minds will grow in wisdom and their souls in character. The children of today are the foundation for a greater tomorrow.

TOGETHER WE'LL GROW

Nestled among the ridges of the Appalachian Mountains is the pleasant, industrious little city of Lewistown. Near it flows the Juniata River on its way to join the Susquehanna River. LEWISTOWN with approximately fifteen thousand residents is the county seat of Mifflin County. Some industries are the American Viscose Corporation and the Cluett Peabody and Company.
